

Links are available at the QR Code or at alertsandiego.org/CochesFireRecovery

The County of San Diego is committed to supporting individuals and families impacted by the Coches Fire. This guide includes information on available recovery resources from County and non-profit organizations. This guide will be updated as additional resources are made available.

Coches Fire County Resources

Property Tax Relief

Phone Number: 619-531-6130 | Email: ARCCDR@sdcounty.ca.gov

Website: Disaster & Calamity Property Tax Relief

- The County Assessor can provide Disaster Relief claim forms for homes and businesses with property damages of $10,000 or other more.

Vital Records Replacement

Call Center: 619-237-0502 | Email: ARCCHELP@sdcounty.ca.gov

Website: <https://www.sdarcc.gov/>

The Recorder/County Clerk can answer questions and assist with requests for vital record replacement copies and property deeds. Provide information and resources regarding Recorder/County services and locations.

Vehicle Disposal

Phone Number: 619-507-2129 | Email: gerardo.vargas@sdcounty.ca.gov

Planning and Development Services can help remove fire damaged vehicles at no cost to the property owner.

Household Hazardous Waste Disposal

Phone Number: 858-694-2456 | Email: Recycle@sdcounty.ca.gov

The County’s Department of Public Works is offering free door-to-door collection services of Household Hazardous Waste (HHW) to residents whose structures were damaged by the Los Coches fire. To schedule a collection please call the number above or email.

For general information on proper handling of household hazardous waste and universal Website: Household Hazardous Waste

To find a location or make an appointment at the nearest household hazardous waste collection facility
Contact: 877-713-2784 | Website: WasteFreeSD.org

For resources and location to recycle and/or dispose construction and demolition debris
Website: Construction and Demolition Recycling Home

Permitting and Rebuilding

Website: County of San Diego Building Division

Planning and Development Services can help with the following:

- Issue Temporary Occupancy Permits for buildings.
- Provide information related to rebuilding homes like zoning, engineering and building requirements, and any permits needed to rebuild or change property layout.
- Provide rebuild packets including data regarding property site conditions, easements, rights-of-way, parcel maps, permits for sidewalks, sewers, safety assessments, rebuilding, etc.

Environmental Health and Quality

Provides information and resources for needed permits and repairs if there is damage to mobile home parks, water wells, pools, or septic systems.

Phone Number: 858-505-6900 | Email: Mobile home Park Program Coordinator: joel.wright@sdcounty.ca.gov

Fire Damage Hazards
Phone Number: 619-816-9415
Planning and Development Services' Code Compliance Team can help with community concerns about fire damage not on your own property.

Erosion Control
The following resources and guides can help with erosion control: • A guide for homeowners Homeowner's Guide for Flood, Debris, and Erosion Control. • For information on the use of fiber rolls to control post fire runoff, erosion, or sediment: Fiber Rolls. • Information on the use of sandbags may be found here: Sandbag Implementation. • Information for sand and bags is available at: Temporary Sand and Sandbag Locations.

Health and Human Services
Call Center: 866-262-9881
The Self-Sufficiency Programs website provides information on food assistance, medical assistance, housing assistance, and other County services. https://www.sandiegocounty.gov/content/sdc/hhsa/programs/ssp.html The Customer Service Call Center helps people in San Diego County with questions about Family Resource Center (FRC) programs and services. Agents are trained workers who know about CalWORKs, CalFresh, and Medi-Cal.

Volunteer Assistance
Salvation Army Phone Number: 619-446-0250 Provides emotional and spiritual care, financial assistance that can be used at Salvation Army local family stores, clothing assistance, some diapers, beverages, and referrals to local Salvation Army pantries.
Team Rubicon Lakeside Coches Fire Response & Clean Up Intake Form: https://forms.office.com/r/JgYst13zES Email: Kevin.Kothlow@teamrubiconusa.org • Assists with clearing access routes, removing hazardous trees, and separating and hauling debris to create safe conditions for rebuilding.
San Diego Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster Contact: Karl Ports 619-823-8424 Kports95@gmail.com • Provide cleaning products (including smoke remediation), N95 masks, Tyvek suits, Hygiene Kits, wildfire kits (including shovel and rake), and tarping of roofs.